

INTERNATIONAL DAY

TO END
VIOLENCE AGAINST SEX WORKERS

17 DECEMBER

International Day To End Violence Against Sex Workers is commemorated to call attention to hate crimes committed against sex workers across the globe. Inaugurated by Dr Annie Sprinkle and initiated by the Sex Workers Outreach Project USA, the first annual day was in 2003 and was held as a memorial and vigil for the victims of the Green River Killer in Seattle Washington. This day has empowered workers from over cities around the world to come together and organise against discrimination and remember victims of violence.
